The Inductive Bible Study Method

A foundational framework for accurate interpretation and life change.

NotebookLM

The End Goal is Transformation

NotebookLM

Bible study is . . .

methodicalness

Method is Methodicalness…

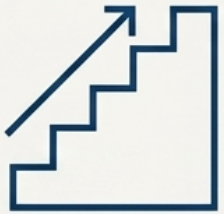

Involves:

1. Take certain steps
2. In certain order
3. To bring about certain results

The Equation of Methodicalness

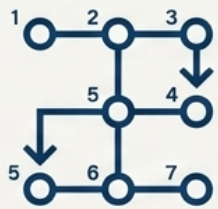

Bible study requires a disciplined approach.
True method involves three non-negotiable variables.

[Take Certain Steps]

[In a Certain Order]

[Bring About Certain Results]

NotebookLM

The Architectural Foundation

"Accurate interpretation and correct application rest on careful observation."

NotebookLM

Accurate interpretation and correct application rest on careful observation

Start by learning how to observe…more specifically, how to read!

The Starting Line

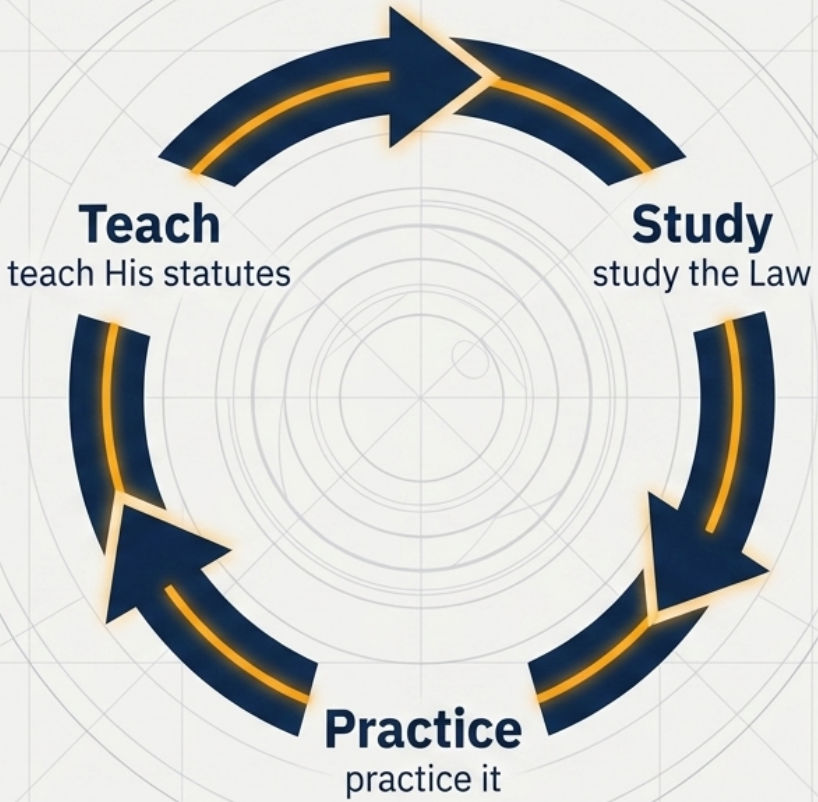

Start by learning how to observe... more specifically, how to read!

NotebookLM

The Ezra Loop

> “For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the Lord and to practice it, and to teach His statutes and ordinances in Israel.”

NotebookLM

For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the LORD and to practice it, and to teach His statutes and ordinances in Israel.

Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews; this man came to Jesus at night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You have come from God as a teacher; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him."

The Mechanics of Observation

Read “slower” than before.

Be “less rushed” in interpretation.

Have more questions about God’s Word.

Discover fresh meanings in familiar passages.
